

How Portsmouth City Council is run: councillors decide, officers deliver

Elected councillors

- Residents elect 42 councillors
- Full Council: budget and policy
- Leader and Cabinet (10): Steve Pitt, Leader
- Scrutiny panels question decisions
- Planning, licensing and other committees

Council officers

- Chief Executive: Natalie Brahma-Pearl (Head of Paid Service)
- Section 151 officer: Chris Ward
- Monitoring Officer: Peter Baulf
- Directorates and service teams deliver services

Source: Portsmouth City Council constitution and democracy pages, via
UK Stat Pack

Checked 23 September 2026 · data f8ca86e0b15b · pompey.uk-statpack.co.uk

Councillors: Residents elect 42 councillors; Full Council: budget and policy; Leader and Cabinet (10): Steve Pitt, Leader; Scrutiny panels question decisions; Planning, licensing and other committees. Officers: Chief Executive: Natalie Brahma-Pearl (Head of Paid Service); Section 151 officer: Chris Ward; Monitoring Officer: Peter Baulf; Directorates and service teams deliver services. MPs are not part of the council and do not direct it.

Image description: Two-branch chart. Political branch: Residents elect 42 councillors, Full Council: budget and policy, Leader and Cabinet (10): Steve Pitt, Leader, Scrutiny panels question decisions, Planning, licensing and other committees. Officer branch: Chief Executive: Natalie Brahma-Pearl (Head of Paid Service), Section 151 officer: Chris Ward, Monitoring Officer: Peter Baulf, Directorates and service teams deliver services.